PARENTAL AFFECTION: Lakshmana asks Sumantra to tell Dasaratha that his son Lakshmana does not respect him. Rama is everything to him — brother, father and all relatives. Dasaratha is relieved to hear this, said Velukkudi Krishnan in a discourse. He feels that of his four sons Lakshmana is the best. Dasaratha's favourite son is Rama. Naturally, anyone who cares for Rama becomes dear to him. Rama reciprocates Lakshmana's affection. After Dasaratha's death, Rama says that he does not feel he has lost his father, for in Lakshmana He sees a caring parent. Sumitra's words to Lakshmana match his mood and desire. She tells Lakshmana that he should go happily to the forest. She urges him to look upon Sita as his mother. Rama must be seen as his father. So, both Dasaratha and Sumitra wanted Lakshmana to see everyone in Rama. And this is as it should be, for is not the Lord the parent of everyone in this world? Arjuna is stunned when the Lord shows him His Viswaroopa. Who is equal to Krishna, he asks. In the next sloka, Arjuna regrets the way he took liberties with Krishna. A parent forgives his child for its mistakes. Likewise, Arjuna wants Krishna to forgive him.

Arjuna had treated Him like an ordinary playmate. He had ordered Krishna around. It is only now that he knows that Krishna has no beginning or end. Arjuna prays that Krishna being the parent of the whole world must look upon his mistakes kindly, and forgive him.—In The Hindu

First ever AI beauty pageant names 10 finalists

New York: The Fanvue Miss AI pageant, the world's first beauty pageant for Artificial Intelligence (AI)-generated female models, judges contestants on beauty, social media clout, and their creator's use of AI tools.

At first, they said AI was coming after our jobs, but now it seems that not even beauty pageants are safe. Originally announced back in April 2024 by Fanvue, a subscription-based platform for creators, the world's first beauty pageant for AI-generated avatars made international news headlines and sparked controversy online. But, based on the popularity of AI models like Aitana Lopez and Emily Pellegrini on social media, this type of event was bound to happen at some point. About 1,500 AI-generated girls were submitted by creators from all over the world, but only 10 of them made the finalist list. The top three contestants stand to win a total of 20,000 dollars in prizes, with the creator of the one crowned Miss AI expected to walk away with 5,000 dollars.

Spring onion-infused coffee in demand

Beijing: Spring onions and coffee definitely don't sound made for each other, but spring onion-infused lattes are apparently all the rage in China these days.

No one knows exactly how, where or when spring onion latte was created, but in recent months the crazy concoction seems to have been adopted by enough coffee shops to draw attention online. It is the latest addition to an ever-growing list of bizarre combinations known as 'dark cuisine' or 'hei an liao li' in China. Some people said that they never thought they would have to ask for onion-free coffee, while others are worried about bad breath.

Ever-increasing menace of stray cattle on M.G. Road

Sir,

This is to bring to the notice of Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) authorities concerned and the elected representatives about the ever-increasing menace of stray cattle on M.G. Road in the heart of the city.

The menace seems to be increasing day-by-day and at present almost 20-30 cattle are found at a time just between the small stretch from JSS Hospital to Mall of Mysore.

There is severe hindrance to the commuters on this road and I have myself seen a couple of minor accidents due to cattle suddenly coming in front of vehicles or due to vehicle needing a sudden turn because of cattle in front.

This is causing severe inconvenience to the commuters of this road. This problem only exacerbates in the evening time when office-goers are returning home and traffic also increases.

Nobody knows the owners of the cattle but it is a known fact that they are attracted to the vegetable garbage thrown unscientifically by the vendors on the M.G. Road vegetable market.

Foul stink of garbage and urine also emanates from this marketplace while travelling on this road which shows official apathy.

I request the MCC Commissioner, the local MLA and area Corporator (whose term has already ended) for urgent need to act on this issue and take appropriate steps to curb the menace of stray cattle and also maintain overall hygiene on this stretch of M.G. Road.

MCC extends 5% rebate in property tax till July 31

Mysuru, June 11 (SBD&BS)- The 5 percent rebate in payment of property tax announced by Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) has now been extended up to July 31, 2024.

According to MCC Commissioner Ashaad-Ur-Rahman Shariff "As per Government circular, the 5 percent rebate in payment of property tax has been extended up to July end, and property owners should make use of it."

In April, the first month of the new financial year, the rebate in property tax had been announced, while no rebate had been provided from May 1 till date. Now, following the circular of the Government dated June 10, the rebate has been provided again.

Rs. 120 crore tax collected

In the current fiscal year 2024-25, MCC has set a target to collect Rs. 250 crore property tax. However, following the rebate, MCC had collected Rs. 92 crore property tax in the month of April itself, with total Rs. 120 crore tax collected so far, achieving 48 percent of the target. This is attributed to the property owners voluntarily coming forward to make use of the period of rebate, it is said.

Three-day National Conference on 'Classical Languages of India' begins at CIIL

Mysuru, June 11 (RK, SPN & DM)- The Central Institute of Indian Languages (CIIL), Mysuru, has hosted a three-day (June 10 to 12) National Conference on 'Classical Languages of India' with the objective of encouraging the development of language, linguistics and literature by researching and promoting the rich heritage of classical languages in view of NEP-2020.

The conference was inaugurated by chief guest, Prof. Udaya Narayana Singh (Dean Faculty of Arts and Chair-Professor of Linguistics, Amity University, Gurgaon) alongside other scholars yesterday.

In his inaugural address Prof. Udaya Narayana Singh highlighted that each Indian language has experienced a classical phase, varying only in its historical period. As a lover of language, his intention was to sensitise the crowd and emphasised the need for language gain.

Continuing, Prof. Singh said that West Bengal and Assam too have placed demands before the Ministry of Culture seeking classical language status for Bengali and Assamese languages by providing supporting documents.

Pointing out that the origin of the language, growth, research, building, office, staff, resource persons and all other necessary infrastructure are the yardsticks for granting classical status to any language, he said that every house in an Arunachal Pradesh village has preserved ancient manuscripts. However the residents of the village do not have the knowledge to publish them, he added.

Prof. Shrinivasa Varakhedi (Vice-Chancellor, Central Sanskrit University, New Delhi) began his speech by appreciating CIIL for integrating classical languages in one arena through this conference. He mentioned that the system needs to adapt to accommodate the requirements of the modern-day mass rather than sticking to the traditional methods, a novel outlook on classical languages.

He stressed that classical languages should serve as object languages, not merely meta languages. He concluded that, with adequate public participation and funding, a rejuvenated interest in languages like Pali and Prakrit can be created.

In his presidential address, Prof. Shailendra Mohan, Director, CIIL, said that India is a treasure trove of linguistic and cultural richness that developed over thousands of years and manifested in the form of creative arts, works of literature, customs, traditions, linguistic expressions, artefacts, heritage sites and more.

He also emphasised the NEP-2020 recommendation on providing "prominence to language and culture that has been lost in recent years."

He also highlighted the need for teaching-learning materials and modules on classical languages, understanding culture and connecting with other disciplines through a comparative methodology.

Prof. Mohan hoped the deliberations made at the conference would lead to a holistic re-development of classical languages.

In his vote of thanks, Dr. Pankaj Dwivedi, Assistant Director (Admin.), CIIL, expressed gratitude to all the dignitaries for their participation. He concluded by mentioning language as an indispensable tool in binding the nation together and addressing classical languages as a window to past wisdom.

Dr. L.R. Prem Kumar, conference coordinator, welcomed.

Veteran litterateur Dr. C.P. Krishnakumar (CPK), Centre's Planning Director N.M. Talwar, Prof. Shivaram Shetty, Dr. Radhamani and others were present on the occasion.

Manteswamy, the first cultural leader of lower strata of society

Centre of Excellence for Classical Kannada Studies Co-researcher G.S. Sannaiah, who delivered a talk on the topic 'Manteswamy Kavya Mattu Parampareya Vaishistyagalu', at the first session of National Conference on Classical Languages of India, said while epics Ramayana and Mahabharata are Shistakavyas, Manteswamy Kavya is a Neelagaarara Kavya. This Kavya is representative of the cultural life of the lower strata of the society, he said adding that this is also projected as the Moukhika (oral) Mahakavya of the lower classes.

Sannaiah further said that Neelagars from Mysuru, Mandya, Ramnagar, Chamarajanagar and Bengaluru rural have kept this Mahakavya alive through folk songs.

Maintaining that Chikkallur, Boppegowdanapura and Kappadi temples find mention in Manteswamy Kavya, he said as such, the Kavya has many specialties. Manteswamy Kavya advocates equal society, individual freedom and the cultural turbulence of the oppressed classes.

MMC&RI doctors' quarters pose safety risks amid neglect

Crores spent on beautifying campuses, but not even a rupee to repair quarters

Mysuru, June 11 (MK&VNS)- "Vaidyo Narayano Harihi" is a Sanskrit phrase meaning "The doctor is an embodiment of God." While Gods reside safely in temples, the doctors and senior staff at the century-old Mysore Medical College and Research Institute (MMC&RI) are left in a precarious situation with inadequate shelter.

MMC&RI has built residential complexes for doctors and senior officials working at K.R. Hospital, Cheluvamba Hospital, PKTB Hospital, Super Specialty Hospital and Trauma Care Centre.

However, due to poor maintenance, many doctors and senior staff have opted to live in rented houses. Those remaining in these residential complexes live in constant fear as the buildings pose a threat to their safety. With the concerned authorities neglecting the issue, residents are forced to spend their own money on repairs.

As MMC&RI prepares for its centenary celebrations, it is yet to address the renovation of these residential complexes, which currently lack basic amenities and appear deserted.

There are a total of 110 residential quarters in three buildings near Dasappa Circle (next to Hotel Guru Residency), Gokulam, on KRS Road (opposite PKTB Hospital), and the Medical College premises. However, more than 10 residential quarters in Gokulam are in ruins and the complexes in the MMC&RI premises and opposite PKTB Hospital urgently need renovation.

The residential complexes located opposite PKTB Hospital, designated for senior officials and medical superintendents, wear a deserted look and have turned into shelters for the homeless. A homeless individual has been residing inside a small room located behind the parking area. Speaking to Star of Mysore, the person said that he had been staying in the room for the past 2-3 months.

> There are over 110 quarters at five locations in Mysuru. Doctors' quarters are in dilapidated condition. Along with that staff quarters renovation works has to be taken up. Already repair works have been started but no funds have been released for renovation of residential quarters. Money collected by HRA is being utilised for repair works. As MMC&RI is celebrating its centenary, we are renovating all the residential quarters.
> —Dr. K.R. Dakshayani, Dean & Director, MMC&RI

"The residential complexes are in a dilapidated condition. We have been spending our own money on repairs since we cannot afford the high rent elsewhere. The building is in a very bad condition, leaking during heavy rainfall and lacking basic civic amenities," said the residents.

While the medical institute is spending a significant amount on centenary celebrations, doctors, medical staff and senior officials have urged the authorities to allocate funds for the renovation of the residential complexes as well.

Farmer robbed in city

He was on his way to a hotel to get breakfast for his daughter admitted at KR Hospital

Mysuru, June 11 (SBD&KS)- Miscreants have snatched money from a farmer who was on his way to a hotel on Sayyaji Rao Road to get food for his daughter, who is admitted at KR Hospital. The incident took place at about 8 am on Saturday.

The farmer, who lost his money is Kalaningappa, a resident of Ahalya village in Nanjangud taluk.

Kalaningappa, who had admitted his daughter to KR Hospital, was walking on Sayyaji Rao Road towards a hotel at about 8 am on Saturday and was counting money on the go.

While counting money, Kalaningappa observed two persons following him and before he could keep the cash (Rs. 5,000) inside his pocket, one of the miscreants snatched the cash and fled from the spot along with his accomplice. Though Kalaningappa shouted for help and began to chase the miscreants, they (miscreants) jumped over the road divider and disappeared.

Kalaningappa later went to Devaraja Police Station and lodged a complaint besides providing information about the looks of the miscreants. Devaraja Police, who have registered a case, are investigating.

It is said that there is a gang which targets innocent people coming to KR Hospital, which is still active. They confront villagers and make them believe in them and finally cheat the innocent villagers.

Meanwhile, the Police have advised people not to carry large cash alone, not to count cash in public and not to wear gold jewels and go walking alone as they could be easy targets to miscreants. Public have urged the City Police Chief to deploy Cops in mufti in crowded place to prevent such incidents from taking place in future.

Female foeticide case

One more woman arrested

Asha Shivaraj

Pandavapura, June 11 (KS)- Melukote Police have arrested one more woman in the sex determination and female foeticide case that rocked the taluk recently.

On May 30, one Malashree, wife of Ravikumar of K. Shettahalli village in Srirangapatna taluk, got admitted at the Sub-Divisional Hospital in the town following severe bleeding. The Gynaecologist at the Hospital, who examined Malashree, got doubt that she (Malashree) had undergone abortion and enquired her.

Malashree told the doctor that she had indeed underwent abortion at a tiled house in Hosakote of Pandavapura taluk with the help of Shruthi, Geetha and Chethan of K.R. Pet town.

Minister asks Zoo to prepare DPR for world-class aquarium

Zoo in the process of identifying transaction advisors to prepare DPR after studying technical & financial feasibility

Bengaluru, June 11 (KMS& BCT)- It's official now. The State Government has unveiled its plans to establish a world-class aquarium project at the Mysuru Zoo (Sri Chamarajendra Zoological Gardens), which has been in limbo for over 12 years. The Government is committed to launching the project under the Public-Private-Partnership (PPP) model.

Minister for Forest, Ecology and Environment Eshwar B. Khandre releasing the Annual Report 2023-24 of Mysuru Zoo in the presence of (from left) Suryasen, Executive Director of Bannerghatta Biological Park, D. Mahesh Kumar, Executive Director of Mysuru Zoo, Sunil Panwar, Member-Secretary, Zoo Authority of Karnataka, Subhash Malkhede, Principal Chief Conservator of Forests (PCCF-Wildlife), P.C. Ray, Principal Secretary (Forests) and Dr. Ravindra Hegde, Director of Institute of Animal Health & Veterinary Biologicals, Bengaluru.

Chairing the 156th meeting of the Zoo Authority of Karnataka held yesterday at Vikasa Soudha in Bengaluru, Minister for Forest, Ecology and Environment Eshwar B. Khandre directed the officials to prepare a Detailed Project Report (DPR) on the neglected aquarium located between the Mysuru Zoo and Karanji Lake Nature Park.

It may be recalled here that on May 22, 2024, Star of Mysore published a report titled 'Fresh attempt to revive Zoo aquarium project' where it was mentioned that the Zoo authorities are scouting to select transaction advisors or consultancies to prepare the DPR after studying the technical and financial feasibility of the Rs. 45-crore project.

The meeting decided to introduce a new camera combo ticket at Mysuru Zoo and Karanji Lake Nature Park. The charges are set at Rs. 150 for a still camera and Rs. 300 for a video camera.

Proposals to attract more tourists

The meeting also reviewed measures to attract more tourists to various zoos in the State and increase revenue. To address the shortage of wildlife veterinarians in zoos and prevent the death of zoo animals due to infectious diseases, the appointment of veterinarians and the use of local veterinary doctors' services for the Aadu Malleswara Mini Zoo in Chitradurga were approved.

Proposals for the acquisition of 13.20 acres of land for the expansion and development of Gadag Zoo, as well as the provision of mid-day meals to zoo staff at a nominal rate, were also approved. For the benefit of the animals and tourists at Bannerghatta Biological Park in Bengaluru, the Government has authorised the supply of Cauvery water from the Bengaluru Water Supply and Sewerage Board.

Medical scheme for staff

Moreover, a proposal to cover medical expenses according to Central Government Health Scheme (CGHS) rates for 153 staff working on direct contracts in Bannerghatta Biological Park, earning above Rs. 21,000 per month, was approved. The Minister also suggested starting a leopard safari by the end of this month, alongside the existing lion and tiger safaris at Bannerghatta Biological Park.

He emphasised the need to examine the concept study and feasibility report of freshwater and saltwater aquariums in the Bannerghatta Biological Park on a PPP model. He proposed that aquariums be developed according to global standards. Additionally, steps should be taken to turn the Vulture Conservation Breeding Centre within the Bannerghatta National Park into a satellite centre of Bannerghatta Biological Park.

Principal Chief Conservator of Forests (Wildlife), Subhash Malkhade, and other officials attended the meeting. The gathering concluded with discussions on future initiatives and strategies to enhance the overall visitor experience and conservation efforts across the State's zoos.

Dasara elephant Ashwathama dies

Was electrocuted after it touched a solar fence which had come in contact with a power cable

Mysuru, June 11 (MTY&KS)- Ashwathama (37), the Dasara elephant, was electrocuted after it came in contact with the solar fence near Bheemana Katte Elephant camp in Nagarahole this morning. Ashwathama was left for grazing in the forest when it touched the solar fence.

It is learnt that a live power cable had come in contact with the metal solar fence resulting in power flowing in the fence when the elephant accidentally touched it and was electrocuted.

DCF Harsha Kumar Chikkanaragunda, along with Veterinarian Dr. Ramesh and staff, who rushed to the spot, conducted an inspection. Captured in 2017 for creating havoc at Sakleshpur and surrounding places in Hassan district, elephant 'Ashwathama,' who was tamed, displayed calm behaviour, participated in Dasara celebrations for the first time in 2021 and again in 2022. With slender tusks and attractive features, Ashwathama, had the ability to be the Golden Howdah carrying elephant in future.

A wild elephant then, Ashwathama was creating havoc by raiding agricultural field and destroying standing crops at Sakleshpur and surrounding places in Hassan district. Farmers and the public, had urged the Forest Department to capture him.

The Forest Department authorities with the help of combing specialist Abhimanyu, Arjuna and other tamed elephants, captured Ashwathama and shifted him to Dodda Harave Elephant Camp, where it was tamed. Dr. Ramesh was conducting post-mortem, when we went to the press.

Safety must be ensured in 14-year-old building

Mysuru, June 11 (BCT)- The 6,000-square-foot aquarium structure, half-built by the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC), was handed over to the Mysuru Zoo in 2018 for refurbishing and maintenance.

It was initially constructed 14 years ago at a cost of Rs. 4.26 crore and the MCC washed its hands off as building an aquarium would require minimum funds of Rs. 30 to Rs. 40 crore. In July 2018, there was a public outcry over the waste of public tax money, leading to the aquarium building being handed over to the Zoo on July 14.

Despite the handover and grand announcements, the aquarium project has not progressed since then. Before the Government can proceed with the aquarium project now, it must undertake a comprehensive review of the existing structure, which is now 14 years old. Due to the project's shelving, many parts of the concrete building have suffered damage.

As part of revival plans, the Zoo authorities gathered information about various aquariums to complete the project in PPP (Public-Private Partnership) mode. Despite the Zoo Authority of Karnataka's consent, the aquarium work has been delayed for various reasons.

Currently, serious efforts are underway to make good use of the building, which was constructed at such a high cost. The 14-year-old building's safety needs to be checked and confirmed by technical experts. The selection process for Transaction Advisors or Consultancy Agencies for technical verification is in progress.

Zoo Executive Director D. Mahesh Kumar recently told SOM that the aquarium work is proposed to be completed by inviting tenders in PPP mode after agency experts conduct a technical inspection of the building and prepare the DPR.

Actor Darshan Arrested for Murder

Meanwhile, the next day an unidentified body with the features resembling that of Renuka Swamy was found by Kamakshipalya Police, Bengaluru. To confirm his identity, the Bengaluru Police summoned Swamy's family from Chitradurga. The family confirmed that the body was indeed that of Swamy.

It has been reported that Swamy's body bore brutal injury marks such as branding by hot iron rod, the kind used to brand animals, shoe marks on body caused by repeated kicking, injuries to his private part and head, which is said to have eventually led to his death.

Others involved

Apart from Darshan, 12 others have been accused in the case. Most of them are his friends and bouncers.

It is alleged that, Darshan, along with his friends and bouncers, had brutally tortured Swamy with lethal weapons, at a shed located in Pattanagere, Raja Rajeshwari (RR) Nagar, Bengaluru. The shed was owned by Darshan's hotelier friend Vinay's maternal uncle Jayanna.

The victim died in the shed after the beating and the body was then moved in an SUV and disposed off next to a Raja Kaluve near Sattva Anugraha Apartment, Summanahalli, Bengaluru. The body was discovered by the Security Officer of the apartment.

The Security Officer promptly called Kamakshipalya Police who rushed to the spot.

The Darshan connection

The Police, after retrieving the body, went on a CCTV checking spree of the area to see who had dumped the body. They soon found the vehicle and tracked the culprits and arrested them.

Upon interrogation, the arrested suspects confessed to moving the body and told the Police that actor Darshan was also involved in the crime and they had acted upon his instruction.

Post Murder

After the crime on June 8, it is alleged that Darshan drove down to his farmhouse, 'Thoogudeepa Farm' at Hale Kempaiahanahundi on Mysuru-T. Narasipur Road on June 9 early morning itself. He then stayed for a day in the farm and then the next day checked-in to Radisson Blu Plaza hotel late in the night.

The Bengaluru Police, who got information about his stay at the hotel, made their move. The Police this morning arrested Darshan after he stepped out of the hotel gym.

The Bengaluru Police was led by DCP (West) Girish. Prior to picking up Darshan, the jurisdictional Nazarbad Police, led by Inspector Mahadeva Swamy and ACP (Devaraja Sub-Division) Shanthamallappa, had provided adequate security cover outside the hotel, assisting their Bengaluru counterparts, who came in search of Darshan at around 4.30 am today, as a precautionary security measure.

Who is Pavitra Gowda?

Pavitra Gowda, about who Renuka Swamy had posted lewd comments costing him his life, is a small time actress in Kannada films and a close friend of Darshan. Pavitra Gowda was also picked up for questioning and arrested later, on the complaint of being present at the spot, when Swamy was tortured and killed. Initially, four of the accused including Darshan were questioned at Annapurneshwari Nagar Police Station, Bengaluru, followed by Pavitra and other accused, who were taken to the Station later, it is said.

Home Minister speaks...

Home Minister Dr. G. Parameshwar, who confirmed the arrest of Darshan in Mysuru, over a murder case, however, refused to divulge further details related to the case. The Minister told media persons, the extent of involvement of the actor in the case will be known only after the investigation.

Pregnant wife, family in shock

Following the murder of Renuka Swamy, his wife Sahana and family members are in a state of shock. Swamy and Sahana were on the cusp of celebrating their first wedding anniversary on June 28, when the tragedy struck them. Sahana is in her third month of pregnancy, it is said.

DG and IGP briefs CM

Following the incident, DG and IGP Alok Mohan briefed Chief Minister Siddaramaiah about the murder case involving actor Darshan Thoogudeepa, at the CM's official-residence Kaveri in Bengaluru this morning.

Darshan 'assaulted' Pavitra

Shocked over the turn of events, as Renuka Swamy breathed his last, actor Darshan is also alleged to have assaulted Pavitra Gowda, holding her responsible for the incident, it is said. Pavitra was later treated at a hospital in RR Nagar, Bengaluru.

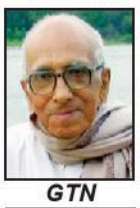
Concert at GTN Award Ceremony

Vid. Rajagopala Bhagavathar performing at Sri Krishna Gana Sabha in Gokulam on May 25.

Dhanya Dinesh Rudrapatnam's concert at Ganabharathi on May 31.



GTN

Bhramara Trust is one of the rare institutions known for its altruistic concern for human welfare and manifests by many gestures. Apart from recognising innovative scientists, supporting deserving schools and colleges, it also recognises young talents in music and honours them with prestigious awards like M.S. Subbalakshmi Award and G.T. Narayana Rao (GTN) Award.

On May 25, Bhramara Trust conferred 'Prof. G.T. Narayana Rao Award' on the young violinist of Mysuru, Vid. Keshav Mohankumar for his outstanding contribution to Karnatak Classical Music, at Sri Krishna Gana Sabha in Gokulam.

The award function was followed by a vocal recital by Vid. Rajagopala Bhagavathar of Davanagere. He was accompanied by Vid. Keshav Mohankumar on violin, Vid. P.S. Sreedhar on mridanga and Vid. V.S. Ramesh on morching.

Rajagopala is adept in both Karnatak and Hindusthani styles. He runs a music Institute in Davanagere, where he is tutoring many youngsters. He began the concert with a rare Varna of Swathi Tirunal Maharaja 'Sumasayakavidura' in Ragamalike, set to Roopakataala. In fact, many of the compositions he had chosen for that day, were not so popular. Thanks to the artiste for selecting them. If not for their efforts, they can go into oblivion.

'Shri Maha Ganapathe' (Abhogi-Khanda chapu) by S.N. Ramachandra had a prelude of a short sketch of the raga. After 'Geetharasikesugunalaye' (Kalyani-Roopaka) by Oothukadu Venkatasubbayyar, he gave a good introduction of raga Amruthavahini. His fertile imagination and the appropriate tempo which he chooses, makes the listeners to ignore the delicate voice. Keshav too made use of the opportunity and expressed his musical imagination well in exploring the raga. The Kalpana swaras were also enjoyable. The main raga of the day was Gamakakriya (as called by Dikshitar's School) or Poorvikalyani. Rajagopala did his best to present the raga in an attractive way.

Needless to say Keshav too was brilliant in his melodious bowing. Dikshitar's 'Meenakshi memudam,' a masterpiece, was perfectly sung. P.S. Sreedhar's enthusiastic beats on mridanga enhanced the overall effect. Rajagopala concluded with a Bhajan by Surdas 'Deenana dukkha harana' in raga Des which was soothing.

A VIBRANT AND ENERGETIC SINGER

Ganabharathi had arranged a vocal concert in memory of B.N. Ramanuja Iyengar on May 31 at Veene Seshanna Bhavana. Ramanuja Iyengar had served the Sabha as a Secretary first and as a President for many years. Young and upcoming singer Dhanya Dinesh Rudrapatnam sang along with C.V. Shruthi (violin), Nandan Kashyap (mridanga) and Harishchandra (kanjira).

Dhanya has been groomed by Vidwan Neyveli R. Santhanagopalan and now is being trained under Delhi P. Sunderrajan. The main feature of her singing is her daring approach. This was evident in her elaborate Kalpana Sangeetha. Combined with this was her energetic singing. This prevailed all through the concert.

The opening varna itself raised many eyebrows as it was set to Chapu tala. A rare varna 'Sarasakshi' in the raga Natakuranji was penned by Ponnaiah Pillai. Her next choice was Raga Rama Manohari. A confident elaboration indeed. 'Matangi Sri Rajarajeshwari' by Muthuswamy Dikshitar was filled with enthusiasm. A lively neraval at 'Ramamanohariraakendushekhari Shubhakari' was so bright and colourful. Shruthi joined hands in adding colour to it. A cascade of Kalpana swaras followed.

'Prasanna Venkateshwaram Bhajare,' another rare kruthi in Vasanthabhairavi by Dikshitar followed. Main raga of the day was Karnataka Devagandhari (Abheri) in which she excelled in unveiling the beauty of the raga. Shruthi was also equally good. Mysuru Vasudevacharya's popular kruthi 'Bhajaremanasa' was well presented with Kalpana swaras.

Thani avartana between Nandan Kashyap and Harishchandra was also good. Nandan Kashyap is a young percussionist who is very promising. One will not be doing justice if he or she takes up RTP at the fag end of the concert and complete it in 20 or 30 minutes. It could have been skipped instead of finishing it in a hurry. Shruthi played the Raga Shanmuukhapriya, while Dhanya sang the Taana and a Pallavi 'Priyegeethapriyesangeethapriye sadashanmukhapriye' set to Khanda triputa taala was presented before concluding with 'Neerada sama Neela Krishna' in Hindola. On the whole, Dhanya is a very promising artiste with a lot of potential who can be a shining star.

The four accused, who had gone absconding and arrested are Kumar, Sharada, Padma and Karthik. They were produced before a city Court which remanded them to judicial custody.

Kuvempunagar Inspector Yogeesh said that prime accused Ravichandra, who is undergoing treatment at a private hospital in city will be discharged today and will be produced before a Court.

Ravichandra, the prime accused, an employee of the Horticulture Department, was allegedly harassing his wife Vidya to get a house and a site from her father which used to lead to frequent quarrels. When Abhishek received information that his sister Vidya was being tortured again, Abhishek, along with his friends came to Ravichandra's house, during which Ravichandra allegedly stabbed Abhishek with a knife following which Ravichandra's brother Kumar, mother Sharada, relative Padma and her son Karthik assaulted the severely injured Abhishek with lethal weapons leading to his death. Abhishek's friend Gautham was also brutally assaulted.

Later, Ravichandra, claiming that he has been injured in the incident, got himself admitted to a private hospital in city and the remaining four accused, on learning that Abhishek had died, fled from the spot.

WORD OF THE DAY

Tractable

Pronunciation: TRAK-tuh-bul (Adjective)
Meaning: Tractable is used to describe someone or something that is easily led, managed, taught or controlled.
Origin: A frequentative is a form of a verb that indicates repeated action. The frequentative of the word sniff, for example, is sniffle, meaning "to sniff repeatedly." Some English words come from a frequentative in another language, and tractable is one. Tractable, meaning "easily led or managed," comes from the Latin adjective tractabilis, which in turn comes from the verb tractare, which has various meanings including "to drag about," "to handle," "to deal with," and "to treat." Not to drag on too much about Latin, but tractare is the frequentative of another Latin verb, trahere, meaning "to drag or pull." Now, one can pull or tug a draft animal on a lead, for example, whether or not that animal is willing or compliant. But if one can pull, handle, or otherwise deal with that animal repeatedly or continuously with ease (by treating it well, we presume)? Well, you can see where this is leading—in English we would call our helpful animal friend tractable. Speaking of farms, despite its resemblance, tractor did not pass through the frequentative tractare but it does come from trahere.
Example: "... Kawasaki's popular KLR650 ... only makes about 40 horsepower, yet it has launched untold numbers of epic rides due to its reliable, tractable and manageable output." — William Roberson, Forbes, 30 Sept. 2022

THE ODD WORD

Alpas

To become free, to break loose.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Variety is the Spice of Life

Meaning: When you use the phrase 'Variety is the Spice of Life' you mean that doing a lot of different things and interacting with all sorts of people, etc. is a way to make life more interesting.
Origin: The phrase 'Variety is the spice of life' was first seen in 1785, in William Cowper's poem The Task: "Variety is the very spice of life, that gives it all its flavour."
Example: "I know we usually spend summers at the beach, but I'm thinking we should try camping. After all, variety is the spice of life."

Siddhartha Belmannu Roopak Kallurkar Bharat Hegde

Mysuru, June 11- As part of its monthly music programme, Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan (BVB), Mysuru Kendra, has organised a music concert by Vid. Siddhartha Belmannu at its premises in Vijayanagar 1st Stage here on June 15 at 6 pm.

He will be accompanied by Roopak Kallurkar on tabla and Bharat Hegde on harmonium.

Siddhartha Belmannu is a musical prodigy and a flourishing avant-garde Indian classical musician. Hailing from the town of Karkala in Udupi district of Karnataka, he was born on Oct. 2, 1996 to his music enthusiast parents, Usha and Prasad Belmannu, who recognised quite early on that he was blessed with a gifted voice, fluent in 3 octaves.

Discerning his musical talent, his parents initiated the inception of his musical journey through basic training in Karnatak Classical Music. Later, he was exposed to Hindustani Classical Music and continued his studies under the tutelage of P.R. Manjunath, a well-known Hindustani musician. Subsequently, Siddhartha trained under the legendary musician Pandit Vinayak Torvi, a doyen of the Gwalior and Kirana Gharana and a disciple of the exponents of the two styles, Gayanacharya Gururao Deshpande and Bharat Ratna Pt. Bhimsen Joshi.

He continues to undergo extensive Gurukul system training since the last 13 years under Panditji, incorporating tradition while constructing his own unique style and musical identity.

Siddhartha recently graduated with a Masters in Global Music from Vishwakarma University, Pune & Lakshminarayana Global Centre of Excellence (LGCE) University, in the process of which he got the opportunity to learn from various acclaimed artistes. In the course of this, he also worked on a research on 'The theory of time and seasons in Indian Raagas.'

Siddhartha was honoured a special mention in Forbes '30 under 30' - 2021 list under the music category and has also been a recipient of awards such as 'Shanmukha Sangeet Shiromani Award-2023', 'Hayavadana Award' by Hayavadana Dasa Sahitya and the Karnataka State Award-2018. Siddhartha has been performing at many prestigious platforms and events across the globe.

Roopak Kallurkar is one of predominant classical tablists in India. He is the disciple and son of Tabla Maestro Dr. Rajgopal Kallurkar. He started off his musical journey at a tender age of 5. He also learns Karnatak Layakaaris from Mridangam Maestro Kulur Jayachandra Rao to inculcate and practice it in his form of playing. He has performed with eminent musicians like Pt. Venkatesh Kumar, Sangeetha Katti, Pt. Vinayak Torvi, Vid. Mysore Manjunath, Vid. Mysore Nagraj; Got featured in one of the most famous Indian bands 'Layatharanga' and many more. He was one amongst few artistes to receive CCRT Scholarship in 2019 for his enormous contribution to the field of music at a very young age. He has showcased himself in most of the Television channels such as DD Chandana, Shankara TV to name a few. On an average, he has given 500 plus concerts in various prestigious platforms across India.

Bharat Hegde received his early training in harmonium playing from Vid. Shambu Bhat and Vid. Prakash Hegde in both accompaniment and solo techniques. His later training has been under Pt. Vasant Kanakapur, Dharwad and now Bharat is learning under Pt. Sudhir Nayak, Mumbai. He has travelled widely in India accompanying classical as well as light classical vocalists.
